2.)

This graph is undirected weighted graph representing the Malawi University Of Business and applied Sciences Campus network. It shows how different buildings hostels and facilities connected through walkways The graph has 20 vertices and 30 edges. Each vertex represent a specific campus location while edge represent walkways connection.